LE CINQ CODET

PARIS

CHIQUETTE,

THE NEW RESTAURANT OF LE CINQ CODET!

On November 26th, the restaurant of the five-star property, Le Cinq Codet, reopened its doors to Chiquette, a cosy place to experience on the Left Bank.

A new kitchen, new chef and new name, the restaurant reinvents itself and offers, from now on, a cosmopolitan and acidulated touch.

After beginning in the United States, at the Four Seasons Palm Beach, Chef David Maroleau continued his career in the French kitchen of the Plaza Athénée and in the English kitchen of the Green House and the Ritz in London. Back in Paris, he integrated Michel Troisgros' team at the Lancaster and was approached by The Majestic Hotel Group to become Chef of the Hotel Montalembert .

Today, inspired by his previous international experiences, the Chef David Maroleau likes to feature dishes combining the best of each culture.
