

5 TAKE A TRIP
 Just a short walk from the Champs-Élysées, the fashionable Oscar Café takes its guests on a culinary journey from Paris all the way to Tokyo, passing by Beirut on the way. Dishes are made using fresh, seasonal ingredients, and prepared by the former head chef of top restaurant Guy Savoy.
 29 RUE DE BERRI, 75008 PARIS, +33 6 71 71 04 04

6 FOODIE HEAVEN
 Provence's historic Château Grand Boise hosts a space dedicated to epicureans. At Maison Grand Boise you can buy all manner of gastronomic treats, while in the attendant bistro, you can dine on tapas or dry-aged prime rib, accompanied by a glass of fine wine from a choice of over 300. ROUTE NATIONAL 7, LE MÉVOUILLON, ROUSSET 13790, GRANDBOISE.COM

7 FAMOUS FIVE
 Located in the heart of the seventh arrondissement of Paris, just a few minutes away from the Eiffel Tower and Les Invalides, the elegant Cinq Codet hotel is in a perfect Parisian location. Inspired by Jean-Philippe Nuel, the hotel has been transformed from its former incarnation as a 1930s telephone exchange building. Partnered with Ladurée, Kayser and Petrossian, its restaurant serves fine cuisine on the hotel's chic central patio.
 5 RUE LOUIS CODET, 75007 PARIS, LE5CODET.COM

8 WORLDS COLLIDE
 The Highlander pub brings a taste of Scotland to the heart of Paris, with its haul of 100 whiskies, plus classic Scottish ales and stouts. Head here for an open mic night every Wednesday, Thursday's karaoke, live music on Fridays and a pub quiz every Sunday and Monday.
 8 RUE DE NEVERS, 75006 PARIS, PUBHIGHLANDER.COM

9 CHILL OUT
 The I-Spa is perfect for some Parisian peace and quiet. Located in the InterContinental Paris Le Grand, it was the very first Deep Nature Spa, but was completely renovated in 2011. Today, the I-Spa boasts a 250m serenity square, multi-sensory showers, five treatment rooms, a private steam room, a tea room and more. Treat yourself with I-Spa's exclusive body care products and enjoy the laidback, relaxing atmosphere. A day spent at the I-Spa is the perfect way to escape the bustle of the city.
 2 RUE SCRIBE, 75009 PARIS, DEEPNATURE.FR